OUR NATIONAL MANUFACTURING DAY

Overview: We are a Queens Award winning engineering and manufacturing business that has been established in Birmingham for 160 years. Specialising in the design, build and manufacture of high precision tooling and components, the company supplies its solutions to customers in multiple sectors. Having navigated the pandemic with a major focus on R&D and exciting emerging market opportunities, the company has entered a rapid growth phase. We offer an exciting, dynamic flexible working environment as we look to deliver our vision.

How we will be involved with National Manufacturing Day:

- Share blogs and PR promoting STEM careers and manufacturing to young people
- Host Open days for schools
- Collaborative design and make day
